Great work 😊 work well with Parents keep it up x

Honestly can't say one negative thing about Asdwood. I wish I'd moved my child to this school sooner

A big thanks to the Nursery team in particular who have been so good with our son all year, we couldn't have asked for any better. All staff should feel very proud of their school.

The school is overall a great school and my child really enjoys coming

I feel there is a lack of communication with parents. I have no idea what my child is learning or how my child is faring. When I try asking, I feel that I am fobbed off or given run-around answers. The answers given appear to be avoiding the question. Events are organised last minute and changed/announced at short notice. There are lots of positives and my child seems happy enough, but at times I am made to feel like my child is an inconvenience to the staff.

Excellent school, we could not be happier with our child attending Adswood. They are thriving with the encouragement of all the wonderful teachers & assistants. Would highly recommend to any parent locally.

In the past year that my child has attended the school, her confidence has grown so much compared to how she was at her previous school. She had a few hiccups when she first started but they were sorted out straight away and she was made to feel so welcome by not only the other pupils but also all the staff. I have nothing but praise for everyone at the school. Thank you for making her want to go to school again!

I would like to see the children brought out quicker at the end of the day. Sometimes parents are waiting 20 minutes in the playground if you have children in early years and ks2. Of course on a nice day this is okay, however in the winter it's not nice to have a small child stood in the cold and rain for such a long length of time. Thus would also avoid children playing on equipment and the astro.

The best school shame there isn't a high school attached

My child has grown in confidence since starting Adswood Primary, he tells me what he has learnt, all about his fantastic relationships with staff who really care for him and comes home regularly covered in stickers or brandishing a certificate. My child knows when he has done well, praise is given regularly and TLC radiates from staff.

I couldn't ask for a better start for my boy. Thank you to the Early Years Team.
